

The TRAITORS

In accord with Mt 12:30, any leader of the Caucasian nations refusing to sign and fulfill The DECLARATION of REPENTANCE and RESTORATION regarding the Mt Sinai Covenant is hereby declared and recognized to be against the Father, His Son Jesus Christ and His chosen people who follow Christ, and are therefore declared TRAITORS to and enemies of The United States of America whose public established religion follows Jesus Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life in accord with the Social Compact that all Caucasian ancestors agreed to in perpetuity at Mt. Sinai over 3400 years ago, and which is now foolishly being dishonored.

Said TRAITORS are thereby subject to the FORCED DEPORTATION ACT OF 2021.

Such action is fully in accord with international law via the Law of Nations, Chapter XII, Section #136.

CHAPTER XII

163

If, in spite of the prince's care to preserve the established religion, the entire nation, or the greater part of it, should be disgusted with it, and desire to have it changed, the sovereign cannot do violence to his people, nor constrain them in an affair of this nature. The public religion was established for the safety <61> and advantage of the nation: and, besides its proving inefficacious when it ceases to influence the heart, the sovereign has here no other authority than that which results from the trust reposed in him by the people,—and they have only committed to him that of protecting whatever religion they think proper to profess.

§136. What the prince ought to do when the nation is resolved to change its religion.

But at the same time it is very just that the prince should have the liberty of continuing in the profession of his own religion, without losing his crown. Provided that he protect the religion of the state, this is all that can be required of him. In general, a difference of religion can never make any prince forfeit his claims to the sovereignty, unless a fundamental law ordain it otherwise. The pagan Romans did not cease to obey Constantine,⁴⁰ when he embraced Christianity; nor did the Christians revolt from Julian,⁴¹ after he had quitted it.*

§137. Difference of religion does not deprive a prince of his crown.

We have established liberty of conscience for individuals (§128). However, we have also shewn that the sovereign has a right, and is even under an obligation, to protect and support the religion of the state, and not suffer any person to attempt to corrupt or destroy it,—that he may even, according to circumstances, permit only one kind of public worship throughout the whole country. Let us reconcile those different duties and rights, between which it may be thought that there is some contradiction:—let us, if possible, omit no material argument on so important and delicate a subject.

§138. Duties and rights of the sovereign reconciled with those of the subjects.

If the sovereign will allow the public exercise of only one and the

The "circumstances" stated above can certainly refer to the superseding prior perpetual social compact made at Mt. Sinai that permitted "only one kind of public worship throughout the whole country" (Num 15:15-16).

Num 15:15-16

15 As for the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the alien who sojourns with you, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the alien be before the LORD. 16 There is to be one law and one ordinance for you and for the alien who sojourns with you.”
